Scott Petri Expo – Eight Squires and our photographer, Eleanor Fox, attended the 13th Annual Senior Expo presented by State Representative Scott Petri (178th Legislative District) at Spring Mill Manor in Ivyland. We had a table display and strolled and sang among the more than 50 exhibitors and medical professionals focusing on senior issues and services during the 4 hour duration of the Expo. The opening entertainment was the New Hope – Solebury Chamber Chorus. We later enjoyed joining this 26-mixed voice high school chorus in “God Bless America,” under the direction of Tom Ferguson, and we then stepped out of the combined chorus and serenaded them and the Expo audience. An enjoyable opportunity to present Barbershop Harmony singing to the community.

Abramson Center – In cooperation with the “Sounds of Liberty” (Philadelphia) chorus, nine Squires and the “Born To Sing” quartet presented a long program to over 100 residents at the Abramson Center in North Wales. The Squires were the “opening act.” Directed by Tom Hankin and Emceed by Steve Gold, the chorus sang their popular package, augmented with the “Under Construction” and “Vintage Four” quartets, a sing-along and Marty Kuhn on the “Stomach Steinway.” The closing was the polished feature quartet, “Born To Sing,” from the Philadelphia chapter. The venue was a large sunny indoor 2-story atrium surrounded on three sides with a balcony view. The positive reaction of the audience was evident in the generous applause, toe-tapping and lip-synching we observed. The Abramson Center for Jewish Life in North Wales is a non-sectarian provider of a full spectrum of geriatric services in their 324-bed facility.

*Happy Birthday for the Month of April to:
Ed Eichner (06), Steve Gold (07), Joe D’Andrea (21)*
