Squires of

Happy New Year

Remember Grundy Towers? Eleven Squires entertained the residents at Grundy Towers in Bristol. Our Director was Tom Hankin and the Emcee (and Rudolph) was Steve Gold. The quartet Vintage Four presented "Mary Lou" and Joe D'Andrea led the group in a lively sing-along. (Photography by E. Fox)

Marty Kuhn on Accordion and a Sing-Along led by Joe D'Andrea to present a long program of repertoire and holiday favorites. Tom Hankin directed with Steve Gold as Emcee and Sylvan Kesilman was "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Aaron Fox and crew prepared our system for the show. (Photography by E. Fox)

How about Holy Redeemer? Fifteen singers entertained at Holy Redeemer Lafayette in NE Philly. The chorus, the quartets "Vintage Four," "Under Construction" and "4Tunes" combined with holiday favorites. Tom Hankin directed with Steve Gold as Emcee and Sylvan Kesilman was "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Aaron Fox and crew prepared our system for the show. (Photography by E. Fox)

Our last gig for year 2017 was on December 28 at Juniper Village in Bensalem. We presented our long program to about 60 residents (BTW, Juniper Village is home for Marty Kuhn). With Tom Hankin as director, Steve Gold as Emcee, fourteen singers, three quartets, Marty Kuhn on Accordion and a sing-along completed the entertainment package. The applause, participation in the sing-along and lip-synching during our singing showed that the audience enjoyed the musical moments we were able to give them.
