Ron Knickerbocker shared his experiences as director, instructor, teacher and international gold medalist with a blend of tips and exercises on vocal production and anecdotes of his barbershop experiences. Breath support, bringing energy and enthusiasm to the audience, carrying that energy to ends of phrases and bringing a light-hearted feeling into your singing were paramount objectives. Exercise your voice every day and learn your music at home in preparation for the rehearsal meeting. Make “every note we sing be the best note I could sing.”

Attleboro Independent Living – The Squires presented an entertaining evening at the Attleboro Community in Langhorne. Fifteen members, under the direction of Tom Hankin, and with Steve Gold as Emcee, sang to an attentive audience of about ninety toe-tapping, lip-synching residents. With a mixture of chorus songs, three quartets and accordion solo, we elicited many positive comments as we greeted individuals after the show.

This February will be highlighted by the four days of ♪ Valentines Greetings ♪, February 11, 12, 13 and 14.
